MAKING TWO MORE PRESIDING ELDERS

Substitute Adopted for the Christian Advocate Report Which Postpones Action.

LYNCHBURG SELECTED AS NEXT MEETING PLACE

Temperance Committee Report Will Rejoice Over the Success of the Mann Bill and Provide for Resolution to Legislate to Eliminate Social Clubs.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Nov. 14.—With the great western bishop at the helm, the ministerial bark is smoothly sailing upon waters that might have been troubled and is weathering every storm that, but for the skillful guiding hand, would probably have discovered dangerous shoals in the path.
It was simply a wonderfully busy day that culminated with the announcement from the chair that the minute questions are already full, and that on Monday the session will be given to committee reports. Such headway has been rarely made before and the matter is becoming the talk of the conference.

Deferred Again.
For the second time the Christian Advocate affair is deferred. The report of the committee came up this morning as a special order and a substitute offered by the Rev. James Cannon, Jr., putting the settlement of the question off another year, was adopted. Members of the conference rejoiced openly that this delicate and dangerous affair could be disposed of in so amiable a manner.
The discussion was lively at times but nothing like what it was in Richmond last year. The report of the committee was held up as a "dummy" and a "punching bag" for the brethren to hit at and the committee laughingly admitted that it was a compromise that suited nobody. The chief objection to the bill was the refusal of Dr. J. P. Powell Garland, and the Rev. Richard Ferguson to serve on the new Advocate Committee, because they were "tired of it" and "wanted to get out." Dr. J. W. Bledsoe was chosen to succeed Dr. Garland and the Rev. W. B. Beaufort was named as a fractional vote for the place vacated by the other minister.

Kellam—Christian.
When the Norfolk and Eastern Shore District was called to-day on the occasion of the annual meeting of the ministers, one of the things that the other things, failed to materialize. The Bishop called the names one by one and finally "Mr. Ashbury Christian."

If Mr. Kellam was in the audience, he made no move and his name slipped by. The minister arose and gave an account of the fine condition of his Berkeley Church, to which he will return. Then he sat down, his character passed unchallenged and the next name was called. Mr. Christian declared that he never had the slightest idea that there would be any charge brought against him.
From what can be gathered, Mr. Kellam is very sore over the status of the affair. He is not talking yet, but will probably have something to say after the annual meeting. He appointed two arbitrators, one of whom was a prominent Richmond minister, but Mr. Christian refused to meet him or them. The Berkeley pastor consistently declares that he has nothing to arbitrate and he refuses to recognize any such attempt as that made by Mr. Kellam.

Other Matters.
A number of other things made the session an interesting one.

TWENTY NEGROES KILLED IN WRECK

Ten Others and Two White Men Injured in Rear-End Collision.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 14.—A rear end collision on the Illinois Central Railroad, near Kentwood, La., eight-five miles from New Orleans, to-night resulted in the killing of twenty negroes. Ten other negroes and two white men were injured, some of them fatally. The collision was between the McComb City accommodation train and the Northern Express, bound to Chicago.
The McComb City train left here at 8:30 P. M. It should have sidetracked to let the express, which left at 8:20 P. M., go by, but got behind before reaching Kentwood. Near that station the express ran the accommodation down through a trap proceeded on her way. Physicians from McComb City and Kentwood were sent to the scene of the wreck to attend the injured. No list of the dead or injured was received at the railroad office here.

THE TIGERS TRIUMPH OVER THE SONS OF ELI

Yale Loses Annual Game on Bad Fumbles.

STUBBORN FIGHT FROM THE KICK OFF

Contest Was One of the Most Spectacular Ever Seen on Yale Gridiron.

DE WITT'S KICKING SWUNG THE BALANCE

Goal From Field Gave the Tigers the Five Points Which Sent the Yale Team From Field Beaten—Yale Stronger of the Two in the Line.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 14.—Yale went down to defeat before the men of Princeton to-day in the annual football game on the Yale field, by a score of 11 to 6.
The contest, which was one of the most spectacular ever witnessed on Yale's gridiron, was stubbornly fought throughout. Until the last five minutes of play, when De Witt, the Princeton captain, kicked a marvelous goal from placement and broke the tied score of 6 to 6, the result was in doubt.
Yale made one touchdown from which a goal was kicked. Princeton equalled Yale's record and added a goal from placement.
At the end of the first half, the score was tied and close observers looked for a Yale victory, but the New Haven men were unable to get the pluck out of the line again, while De Witt's kicking ability gave to his team, the victory.

YALE'S FUMBLING.
While Princeton deserved to win, Yale deserved to lose, for Princeton's scores were practically the direct result of Yale's fumbling. Yale's small score, moreover, was due to fumbling equally as fatal.

Within fourteen minutes from the time play began, Yale had torn through Princeton's line consistently and had sent Hogan across the line for a touchdown. Princeton could not cope with Yale's defense, and the play was largely in orange territory.

Yale followed up her first advantage and again pressed toward the Tigers' goal line. A fumble came here, but a Yale man fell on the ball.

Yale again pounded Princeton's line for short but consistent gains and again Yale was in striking distance. The Yale quarterback, with the game well in hand, apparently decided to save his men and signaled for an attempt at a goal from the field. Mitchell dropped back and fumbled the ball on Princeton's twenty-yard line. The visitors broke through. De Witt snatched the ball from the ground and protected by line interference, ran the length of the field for a touchdown. Vetterlein kicked the goal and the score stood even at 6, at the end of the first half. The players on both teams came out for the second half in good physical condition.

BATTLE FURIOUS.
In this period, as in the first, Yale's superiority of offense was apparent. For the Blue kept the play in Princeton's half of the field most of the time. Twice Captain Rafferty's men rushed the ball with irresistible force toward the Orange goal line, and twice with touchdowns. In the first, the sons of Yale fumbled awkwardly. Again, the backs hurried themselves through the opposing line, only to lose their last hope of victory, through holding in the line, which cost Yale twenty yards and the surrender of the ball. The battle was waged furiously, and the Yale men were the first to show the effects of the struggle.

Princeton, meanwhile, never wavered, and the Orange and Black line became a stauncher.

Yale could not gain, but her forwards were equally as sturdy on the defense, and Princeton could not penetrate the blue wall. Accordingly, Princeton resorted to the kicking game, and with five minutes to play, another Yale fumble placed Yale in serious trouble near her own goal line. Luckily for Yale, one of her own men fell on the ball, but Bowman, the Yale back, was forced to kick from behind his own goal line. He punted well to Yale's forty-two yard line. Vetterlein, who was playing back for Princeton, caught the ball, and, with great presence of mind, heeled the catch for a kick from placement. With the score still at six to six, the great crowd was breathless while De Witt prepared to try for goal, at a slight angle. The distance was forbidding, but De Witt was superbly equal to the occasion, and shot the ball between the goal posts in masterly style, thereby ensuring to Princeton its first victory since 1890.

DEWITT OUTPUNTED.
The game afforded something of an anomaly in view of the fact that Yale, the defeated team, gained the greater distance, both in kicking and rushing. Mitchell, the Yale back, outpunted De Witt unmistakably. Indeed, Princeton's captain apparently had an off day. Thirty thousand people saw the game. The line-up:

Officers Chosen by the Daughters.
Mrs. A. T. Smythe Elected President and St. Louis Selected as Next Place of Meeting.

(By Associated Press.)
CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 14.—The Daughters of the Confederacy to-day elected the following officers: President, Mrs. A. T. Smythe, Charleston; First Vice-President, Mrs. Basil Duke, Kentucky; Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. D. Beale, Alabama; Recording Secretary, Mrs. John P. Hickman, Kentucky; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. V. F. McSherry, West Virginia; Treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Leigh, Virginia; Custodian, Mrs. S. E. Gabbett, Georgia.

St. Louis was selected as the next meeting place. The closing session did not end until midnight, and the convention closed enthusiastically with the singing of the long metre doxology.

After the morning session the visitors, as guests of the City Council, went on an excursion to Sullivan's Island and the Isle of Palms. All of them visited Fort Moultrie, but by courtesy of the War Department and Colonel Poole, commandant, many of the ladies went to Fort Sumter rather than the Isle of Palms.

After their return to the city at the afternoon and evening sessions, there were protracted discussions as to changes in the constitution and by-laws, but no important conclusions were reached. A committee was appointed to confer with similar committees of the Veterans and Sons of Veterans as to the propriety of reviving and adopting some definite version of "Dixie," such committee to report at the next annual convention.

GETS PENSION SPITE OF DISHONORABLE DISCHARGE.
(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Assistant Secretary Miller, of the Interior Department, has overruled the decision of the commissioner of pensions in the case of Thomas J. Norman, a Georgia volunteer in the Mexican War, whose claim for pension was rejected by the Pension Bureau on the ground that Norman had been dishonorably discharged, and that subsequent legislation does not operate to change the above status.

Norman, on February 18, 1869, directed the Secretary of War to grant him an honorable discharge, and certified the fact to the commissioner of pensions.
